FOREWORD

Following the sudden death of my father in September 2008, and a subsequent court action which his ex-wife from the Ukraine won, we have been reluctantly forced to stage a dispersal sale of the cattle and livestock equipment together with surplus machinery etc.

It is a sad and early conclusion to our Longhorn breeding programme. But as the sale heading suggests it was a decision made by us. We have met some wonderful people in the last 6 years and had a great time dipping our toes into the showing arena.

The decision to sell the cattle and farm kit was not one from the heart but a purely business one. We have a young family and plans of our own and have to look at maximising the potential income from the farm. Selling the cattle and renting the grazing while I concentrate on the contracting side of the business for the time being makes undisputable sense. We did not want to spend the next 25 years paying the settlement although this sale does not cover this debt but it will go a long way to help.

The foundation herd was set up with cows from David Bevan's Mayhill herd and Bernard Llewellyn's Carreg herd in 2003. Both very established and respected herds. Later purchasing a stock bull - Mayhill Secundus.

We managed to do some showing in particular at the Royal Welsh and Monmouth but we couldn't commit enough time to really do our stock justice. We managed to show 2005 to 2007 but due to foot and mouth restrictions in the summer of 2007 we were unable to complete our run of success. Hence the lack of accolades.

The Cwrt Henllys herd runs at 170 meters on the fringe of Welsh hill land. Turned out April and housed in from November and fed on home grown silage. Calves weaned at 9 months. Maiden heifers introduced to bull between 2 and 3 years old.

Ceri ran a small direct beef business linking in the lamb and pork off the farm. The beef was successfully sold via the box schemes and was awarded runner up in the True Taste Awards in 2008. Longhorn beef has excellent recognition within the marketplace.

We look forward to welcoming you to Cwrt Henllys Farm. The farm is in a perfect geographical position – 10 mins from M4 junction 27, 20 mins Cardiff and Bristol, 30 mins Monmouth. (please see location plan)

Light Refreshments will be provided by award winning Rare breeds butcher Neil James of Raglan.
