Foreword

It may seem surprising to fellow devotees of Longhorn cattle that a decision has been made to virtually disperse the herd relatively soon after its formation (2002). Nigel Fortun and I were aided in our selection and purchase of first class stock by Pat and John Stanley and Angela and David Buckley and I named the herd after my late mother Lois Mary Logan who I, and my brothers, dearly loved.

When I was very young, I stayed at Park Farm, Risley on the borders of Derbyshire and Nottinghamshire and this imprinting my first aspirations in my teens to do agriculture even to the extent of staying at New Hall Farm, Sawbridgworth, Herts. and visiting the agricultural college in Writtle with a career in mind. However, a call to do medicine superceded this interest and human fertility later became an all absorbing passion.

However, the wish to farm never really went away and a visit to Kentwell Hall in Suffolk to attend the Suffolk Horse Spectacular exposed me to Suffolks (I now own two) and the beautiful Longhorns.

My impulsive nature immediately on purchasing Assh House and Farm in mid Devon, prompted an interest in acquiring good stock with a view to forming a herd and contact with the Longhorn Cattle Society resulted in a visit by the Stanleys to Devon. A return visit to their farm in Leicestershire followed and the rest is history with the purchase of the much loved Cardinal Hawkeye and other excellent stock.

The committed and loyal services of Nigel Fortun, my farmer, has led to show success in a relatively short time with a recent achievement in coming 1st in the Mid West Herd competition 2006.

So why virtually disperse the herd might you ask? Well, farming is just one of my interests and perhaps I had underestimated the time, effort and expense of renovating an 18th Century house and its grounds, particularly with my interest in 17-18th Century architecture and landscape design. Now I believe I, and Nigel, need to re-focus our attention on finishing the house and its walled gardens and refurbishing other properties for letting so that the estate will later be left in good order for my son. Much has been done but there remains so much to do.

In the meantime we trust the stock for sale will give as much pleasure to others, as it did to me when I first saw Cardinal and his retinue being led across the field in the front of the house with its ha ha, and the marvellous view of Dartmoor in the distance.

To all those who have helped our forming this herd and given advice – thank you.

Ian Craft
