

Society Autumn Show & Sale

23 September 2017

Worcester Livestock Market

The Longhorn Cattle Society's Autumn Show & Sale at Worcester peaked at a very creditable 3,800gns for JS & W Brigg's 'Gorse Winegum' and in calf heifer from the Warwickshire based Gorse herd. The heifer had previously won Breed Champion at Shropshire, Royal Bath & West and Royal Three Counties Shows 2017 and also took the Overall Championship in the pre-sale show, the successful bidder being David Howden, Buckingham for his Pointer herd.

A second prize winning in calf heifer Carreg Plover by multi prize winner Fishwick Lord of the Rings from Bernard Llewellyn found favour and was finally secured by Mark Wheeler, Stroud, Glos.

Cows and calves were closely followed and topped the section at 1,500gns for Woolhope Leah a Blackbrook Stig daughter with bull calf at foot from O'Brien & Vice to ATF Brodie & Son, Worcester.

Two other cows and calves also from Messrs O'Brien & Vice's Woolhope herd sold briskly at 1,480gns and 1,380gns both to RJ Hamer, Bishops Castle, Shropshire.

Bulls were a selective trade but peaked at 2,300gns for Newton Zinfandel bred by D Walker but consigned by Nicky Luckett, the 2 ½ year old bull had won Reserve Male Champion at Northumberland and also took the same award in the show section of the sale, he was taken by T. Taberner, Burton on Trent, Staffs.
