

SOCIETY NATIONAL SHOW & SALE & AUTUMN SALE
30 AUGUST 2014

LONGHORNS AT WORCESTER TO 3,500gns

The Longhorn Cattle Society's National Sale at Worcester attracted a capacity crowd and some keen and spirited bidding on all classes of cattle culminating in 3,500gns for the Reserve Female and Reserve overall Champion Treverton Noblesse from Rachel Heard's Northampton based herd – the 18 month old heifer had previously won Champion Junior Heifer at the Society's National Show at Lincoln and Breed Champion at Hanbury earlier in the summer, she was secured by D. Howden, Ludgershall, Buckingham.

A served heifer Tanfield Memphis from Mike Shearstone's herd was closely followed and was eventually taken by Mr W Gilbertson-Hart, Lutterworth at 2500gns. The heifer out of Fishwick Hocus Pocus had won 3rd at Heckington and the same award at the pre-sale show.

Cows and calves had a good following with a top of 2,100gns for Shadybrook Karen a second calver with heifer calf at foot from David Winnington's Derbyshire based herd and taking first prize in her class, being also purchased by D. Howden, Buckingham.

A small entry of bulls was topped at a 3,000gns bid by A & J Sheppard Partnership, Garway, Herefordshire, for Riverlands Muster from R & V Burton having been a prolific winner not only taking Male Championship at the pre-sale show but also the same award at Notts County and other top awards at Midland Shows.

A select entry of junior heifers from Nicky Lockett's Wellhead herd sold briskly to a top of 980gns for the second prize winner Wellhead Nizam to TH Mills, Bakewell, Derbyshire.
