

From Cheese Show 14 September 2013

Judge Peter Guest

Only two cows in the cow class, my preference going to the cow with a calf at foot, the second place one is due to calve January 2014 and was carrying rather too much condition.

In the Junior heifer class first place went to a nice heifer but could do with a bit more length but she had better locomotion than the two heifers placed second and third.

In the over 24 months class there were two good heifers with Stoke Lupin being a heifer that is very correct and one that 'fills the eye'. She went on to be Breed Champion and is one to watch for in the future.

Two young bulls forward with Stoke Mudlark getting first place due to his better locomotion over his rival. He became reserve Breed Champion.

The facilities and prize money at this show are very good and would be good to see more Longhorn entries here. The total cattle entry being some 450 entries, very good for a one day show.
