

Royal Three Counties Show
13 June 2014

Judge: Lynda Burditt

I would like to thank the Longhorn Cattle Society for inviting me to judge at the 2014 Royal Three Counties Show.

The Senior Bull class only two animals forward Gupworthy Merlin took 1st place from Mr & Mrs G Woollatt. The Junior Bull that took 1st place was Carreg Niknak, a good long bull with lots of presence he then went on to be my Male and Breed Champion of the day, exhibited by Mr & Mrs B&M Llewellyn.

The Senior heifer went to Carreg Martha who went on to be my Reserve Female Champion.

The highlight of the day for me was the Junior heifer class, eleven heifers forward, what a spectacle when they entered the ring, my 1st place was given to Gorse Useful from Messrs JS & JW Brigg, a good long heifer with good locomotion, followed very closely by another heifer from the Brigg family, Gorse Umbrella. Gorse Useful went on to be Female Champion and Best Junior Heifer.

The pairs class was first JS & JW Brigg followed closely by Mr & Mrs B&M Llewellyn.

A big thank you to all the exhibitors for bringing their good quality cattle before me, they were a pleasure to judge.
