Foreword

With the Longhorn Breed having taken my eye in 2002, I made purchases from several notable breeders – Bejon, Settrington, Carreg, Southfield, Blackbrook and others – with a history in the Meat Industry I have striven to maintain some shape in the cattle.

My interest in the breed continues, however, whilst attending a Longhorn Sale in 2006, I received a telephone call informing me that my wife had been taken to hospital. The resultant traumatic period that followed, involved my attending Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham for 14 weeks (8 of them in Critical Care). This has meant that my priorities have had to change. I now know how to switch on ALL domestic appliances and have even found out how to use the iron.

At the same time, being given greater responsibility from my employers, managing staff covering an area from the Orkney Isles down to Cambridge, this again, means that time is at a premium. Alas, the Longhorns have to go.

It is my intention to continue my Longhorn membership.

The cattle presented to you will be in their working clothes and have been wintered on just Hay and limited quantities of Corn and I'm sure will go to pasture and do well.

Good Luck to all prospective purchasers.

John Pennington
