The Frank Sutton Trophy for the Best Young Handler

The Frank Sutton Trophy for the best Young Handler was won by Will Glover. Second was Joe Clark, third Victoria Clark and fourth Harry Blockley

President's Award

Awarded at the end of the incumbent President's two year term of office this Award is made to a member whom the President feels has made a significant contribution to the development and welfare of the Longhorn breed. The award can be made to someone who is still active within the breed, or who's contribution was perhaps a little while ago and should be recognised. President Frank Sutton presented the Award to Mrs Pat Quinn. It was announced that John Brigg had accepted Council's invitation to be the Society's next President
