

Nottinghamshire County Show 9 May 2015

Judge: Lynda Burditt

Bull of any age, the bull class was not an easy class to judge, 1st in class was Riverlands Oink, a very well fleshed young bull and he went on to be my Male and Junior Champion. Followed by a very well grown bull, but he lacked flesh on the day, but we shall see him again I'm sure .

Junior Heifer, Tom Mills' heifer Wheatland Olive 1st in class, good straight back, good colour and length and went onto be Best Junior Heifer and Reserve Female Champion. Followed by Charnwood Oriana, has a lot of growing to do, but hope she will make a good cow.

Senior Heifer, 1st in class was Newton Xsara, shown by the Walkers. Xsara was my Breed and Female Champion. A clear winner from entering the ring, a cow maker.

Group of 3. 1st was a good well balanced group with plenty of power from the Walkers, 2nd Tom Mills' group another well matched group. 3rd the Burton group not quite so well matched.

I would like to thank the Longhorn Cattle Society for inviting me to judge at the Notts County Show 2015, and to the exhibitors for bringing their cattle forward.
